Third Party Organisations who we share data with

We sometimes need to share the personal information we process with other organisations. Where this is necessary we are required to comply with all aspects of the GDPR. What follows is a description of the types of organisations we may need to share some of the personal information we process with for one or more reasons.

Where necessary or required we share information with:

- family, associates and representatives of the person whose personal data we are processing
- professional advisers
- current, past or prospective employers
- educators and examining bodies
- trade, employer and professional organisations
- UCAS
- voluntary and charitable organisations
- healthcare, social and welfare organisations
- financial organisations
- survey and research organisations
- persons making an enquiry or complaint
- careers service
- local and central government
- security organisations
- police forces, prison and probation services, courts and tribunals
- Auditors
- OFSTED
- How to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority.
- Whether the provision of personal data is a statutory or contractual requirement, or a requirement necessary to enter into a contract, as well as whether you are obliged to provide the personal data and the possible consequences of failing to provide such data.
- The source of personal data if it wasn't collected directly from you.
- Any details and information of automated decision making, such as profiling, and any meaningful information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and expected consequences of such processing.

To access the data we hold on you or to exercise any of your rights listed above contact our Data Protection Officer Grethe Woodward grethe.woodward@cnwl.ac.uk tel: 0208 208 5436/ 0207 258 7291
